

White truffle acacia honey

White Truffle

Shelf life: 24 months

Description: The delicate aroma of the extra white truffle (Tuber magnatum Pico) infused in the sweet flavor of the golden Acacia honey. A sublime condiment that will really delight your guests.

Preservation: Free from preservatives and artificial colouring. Conserve in cool dry place away from direct sunlight and warm surfaces. Once open store with lid in a cool dry place. No refrigerating is required.

Use: The White Truffle Honey is ready to be used to add zest to your dishes. We suggest trying it with Pecorino cheese or drizzled over big chunks of Parmesan cheese. Ideal to garnish your roasted meats.
